Synopsis:

Priority Influencing

Transform Your Communication, Unleash Your Influence

- Have you struggled to get buy-in from team members on your ideas or proposals?
- Are you experiencing difficulty in reading other people's body language and non-verbal cues?
- Do you struggle to handle conflict situations effectively in your workplace?
- Have you found yourself frustrated when trying to communicate your message clearly to others?
- Are you experiencing challenges in building strong relationships with colleagues or clients?
- Do you struggle to ask the right questions during important conversations or meetings?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, this course is designed to address these challenges and more..

The Priority Influencing Workshop is an essential skills program designed to help you improve and develop your knowledge and skills as an influencer. It will help you improve your productivity and effectiveness by enhancing your influencing skills and show you how to maintain a keen awareness of others' interests, moods and concerns. You will gain proficiency in any interdependent situation.

- Unit 1: Being Productive: Introduces participants to the processes of work in the New Economy. Attendees work to discover how the influencing process impacts their effectiveness.
- Unit 2: Wavelength: Shows by practice and observation the importance of wavelength skills in the influencing process. Participants learn how to recognize and look at body language and the importance of questioning and understanding in influencing.
- Unit 3: Questioning: The ability to ask open questions to seek for information ensures participants can better understand where others are coming from.
